Burdock, great — Arctium lappa Burdock, lesser — Arctium minus Burdock, woolly — Arctium tomentosum Asteraceae (Sunflower Family)

Noxious

• Information: Introduced from Europe, can be found in disturbed areas.

• Life Cycle: Biennial; basal leaves in the first year of growth, flowers in the second.

• Root: Taproot.

• Leaves: Large leaves, heart shaped, woolly • Stems: Plant can be as large as 3m tall, underneath, larger leaves are closer to the ground, alternately arranged on the stem. stems are thick and hollow.

- Flower: Clusters of purple-pink flowers, flowers have hooked bracts.
- seeds.
- years growth).

• Seed/Fruits: Large seed pods with hooks attach themselves to clothing and fur, a mature plant can produce from 6,000 to 16,000

• Control: Control in the rosette stage (first