Dame's Rocket Hesperis matronalis Brassicaceae (Mustard Family)

Noxious

 Information: Introduced from Europe as an ornamental, also known as Dames violet. • Life Cycle: Perennial.

- Root: Shallow root.

• Leaves: Stalkless, alternately arranged on the stem, small hairs on both sides, fine toothed edges.

- Stems: Branched, medium height.
- Seed/Fruits: Reproduces by seed, each plant can produce up to 20,000 seeds.
- Toxicity:
- Control: Hand pick, chemical.

• Flower: Showy purple flowers with 4 petals.