Knapweed, Russian Acroptilon repens Asteraceae (Sunflower Family)

Category:

Prohibited Noxious

- Information: Native to Eurasia, forms dense, long lived stands.
- Life cycle: Perennial.
- Root: Rhizomatous with black, bark-like Covering.
- Leaves: Basal leaves toothed, covered with narrow, toothed, and up to 6cm long.
- tip. Bracts rounded with papery tips.
- white bristles.
- Toxic: Horses.
- Control: Long term, hand pick, chemical control late in the season.

http://www.invasiveplants.ab.ca/Downloads/FS-RussianKnapweed.pdf fine hairs, grayish-green. Lower stem leaves deeply lobed, 5-10cm long; upper stem leaves • Stems: One or more stems up to 90cm tall. • Flower: One purple flower head per branch • Seed/Fruit: Oval, grey or ivory with long